LINUS PAUL KROSS

I tell stories –
with images, animation and emotion.

01 PROFILE

“Can I have a look?” – that’s what I said as a kid whenever I spotted a camera. I’ve pretty much had one in my hand ever since: from MiniDV to digicams and GoPros, all the way to some rather questionable 3D intros at the age of 14. What started as play became a degree in film and television and, eventually, my profession. Today I’m most at home in editing and motion design – and still just as curious to try new things and turn ideas into reality.
